A LOAN OF EIGHTY-NINE MILLIONS TO GRAND TRUNK AROUSED KEEN CRITICISM

Lucien Cannon Made Attack On Sir Joseph Flavelle—Said He Bore Most Hated Name In Canada As Greatest War Profiteer—Supplementary Estimates Tabled

Ottawa, May 30—(Can. Press)—A loan of $89,000,000 to the G. T. R. aroused keen criticism in the House to-night. At the time the House was in supply on the Railway Estimates, Lucien Cannon, of Dorchester, seized the opportunity to attack Sir Joseph Flavelle, appointed Chairman of the Grand Trunk Railway temporary Board of Management.

Sir Joseph, declared Mr. Cannon, bore the most hated name of any man in Canada. He was the greatest war profiteer in the Dominion and had earned a most unenviable reputation during the great struggle while acquiring millions. The people of Canada expected the Government to see that the huge sums voted for the Grand Trunk were not placed in the hands of a man like Sir Joseph Flavelle.

Mr. Cannon's attack called for a warm defence from Hon. J. D. Reid, Minister of Railways, who was piloting the Estimates. There was not a man in Canada who had a better reputation than Sir Joseph, he retorted, and it would further be in the best interests of Canada if the Government could secure Sir Joseph as Chairman of the Canadian National Railway Board. The attack made by Mr. Cannon was unfair and unjust.

The Minister made an extended statement to the Committee in explanation of the item under discussion. Part of the total amount had been used to pay accounts due or overdue when the Government took over operation of the road. These amounts totalling over $50,000,000 would be considered by the arbitrators in making their award.

In addition to the fifty million, there was due, or would fall due, during the coming year, for rentals, interest, operating deficit, capital expenditure, etc., some $49,000,000. There was due $22,000,000 under G. T. P. guarantees, while the Grand Trunk had resources available of $22,000,000, leaving the net sum of $49,000,000.

F. S. Cahill, (Pontiac), moved that the item consisting of $89,000,000 for the Grand Trunk, and $26,000,000 for the Grand Trunk Pacific be reduced by $22,000,000.

This amendment was declared lost. A. B. Copp, (Westmoreland) then drew the attention of the Minister to the fact that it was 1 o'clock in the morning. Members of the Committee were anxious to look over the record of the debate in Hansard. He suggested that the item be allowed to stand for the present. The Minister objected that no progress had been made. Finally, however, he agreed to the suggestion.

Before adjournment Sir Henry Drayton, Minister of Finance, tabled the supplementary estimates for the year which totalled $23,959,842.14. The figure is low and indicates a close scrutiny of expenditures.

have already drawn their full proportion of the original $28,000,000. One of the largest items is $280,000 for railway mail service. This is required to pay higher rates fixed some time ago by the Railway Commission, and now made operative.

Other items are: Increase to Civil Service through re-classification $1,500,000; Canadian National Research Institute, $150,000; Extension of Trade Agencies in foreign countries, $100,000; Canadian Government Railways, for claims arising out of overseas service of employees $80,000 and a supplementary pension allowance under inter-colonial and Prince Edward Island Employees' Provident Fund Act.

Afternoon Session
In the House this afternoon, Hon. W. L. MacKenzie King, Opposition leader, asked why the trip of the steamship Arctic to Northern waters had been cancelled.

The Prime Minister replied that the Government did not think that the expedition would be necessary this year, at least, as they had reason to believe that there was no danger of action by another Government during the present year.

Hon. R. Lemieux said that he understood another Government did contemplate raising its flag upon lands in the northern waters, and he therefore asked if the Prime Minister did not think it imprudent to delay the expedition.

Mr. Meighan said that the matter mentioned by Mr. Lemieux had to do with the original decision of the Government not to set the Arctic. In view of the fact that the vote for the expedition had been passed, if anything transpired to indicate that there was danger in delay, the Government would not hesitate to protect the interests of Canada. As to the expenditure which had already been incurred, there was reason to believe there would be very little loss.

Remaining Supply Voted
Ottawa, May 30—The House today voted regarding supply for the Department of Customs and Inland Revenue. D. S. MacKenzie, of Cape Breton North, objected to a provision in a five million vote for salaries which permits payment of overtime to Customs and Inland Revenue officers, notwithstanding the Civil Service Act. Hon. R. W. Wigmore replied that the particular provision was introduced under the Laurier regime.

That, retorted Mr. MacKenzie, did not give the present Government the right to proceed in the same way. If the Civil Service Act did not provide for payment of overtime, it should be changed. Officials should be paid.

HOUSE DIVIDED ON DIVORCE BILL

Member Moved That The De Martigny Bill Be Referred Back

Ottawa, May 30—(Can. Press)—The House divided this afternoon on the De Martigny Divorce Bill which has aroused so much controversy. Adoptive Stein, Kamouraska, moved that the bill be referred back to the Private Bill Committee for the hearing of further evidence. Mr. Stein's motion was defeated by 58 to 46 and consideration of the bill was continued in committee of the whole House.

Controversy was once more aroused in the House this afternoon over a bill to grant a divorce to Alphonsine LeMoine De Martigny. When the measure first came before the House it was stated to be the first divorce bill from Quebec and there was strenuous opposition to it. Again when for the third time the bill came up for discussion in Committee there was opposition.

A Stein, (Kamouraska), seconded by J. J. Denis, (Joliette) moved that the bill be referred back to the Committee on private and miscellaneous bills with instructions to hear further evidence in regard to the facts set forth in the preamble.

Mr. Stein's motion was lost, 48 to 46, in a division that cut across party lines. The House then went into Committee on the bill.

Mr. Stein rehearsed the history of the case and read the judgment of the Quebec Superior Court of November 20, 1912, in which Mrs. De Martigny was granted separation from bed and board and alimony of $100 a month. In another judgment handed down by the same court in April 1919, Mrs. De Martigny was granted an increase in alimony after the court had thrown out the petition of her husband charging her with misconduct.

The court held that Mr. De Martigny was unable to prove his case and that Mrs. De Martigny was not guilty. To the objection that Mrs. De Martigny had not appeared before the Senate Committee to defend the case, Mr. Stein urged that she had already won three cases against her husband and husband's mother, before the Quebec courts. Furthermore, she had the custody of the child, which by the Civil Code of Quebec, is given to that party in the marriage which obtains the separation.

The witnesses before the Senate Committee, said Mr. Stein, were an old woman of 82, who had definitely denied having witnessed any improper conduct, a dressmaker who had spent eight or ten days at the home and had not heard expressions of undecent and finally a janitor who had taken it for granted that the relations were those of man and wife.

W. K. Baldwin, (Stanstead) declared there was no proof of wrongdoing on the part of Mrs. De Martigny. She was opposed to any action by Parliament which would diminish the character of this woman.

Mr. Denis moved that the committee rise and report progress and his motion carried by a majority of 16 on a non-party vote. Further consideration of the bill therefore goes over until to-morrow.

UNITED STATES' MEMORIAL DAY

President Harding Re-Dedicated American Nation To Cause Of Freedom

Washington, May 30—Washington's Memorial ceremonies for United States war dead were colored by a new touch of international significance today at services held in Arlington cemetery under the lead of President Harding.

Speaking in the Arlington amphitheatre to veterans of three wars and to a distinguished company of officials and diplomats, the President re-dedicated the Nation to the cause of freedom and civilization and promised that it never would fail to measure up to every demand presented to it in behalf of civilization. By striking across the sea in the World War, he declared the United States had sanctioned again her faith in free institutions for peoples everywhere.

At the conclusion of the address, Sir Auckland Geddes, the British Ambassador, seconded the sentiment by placing on the United States flag beside the President, a wreath of roses presented by the people of the United Kingdom and her Dominions "in undimmed memory of the sacrifices that the United States has made for individual liberty."

Presentation of the Memorial wreath by Ambassador Geddes was not a part of the pre-arranged program for the Arlington ceremonies, his request for permission to make the offering having reached officials in charge just before the President began speaking. The Marine Band, seated on the platform rendered "God Save the King" when the Ambassador came forward to speak.

Tens of thousands of veterans of the Civil, Spanish, and World Wars marched today in parade throughout Greater New York in honor of the dead they had left behind them on the crimsoned soil of the battlefields and under the white flecked waters of the sea. Joining hands with them beneath the Stars and Stripes were allied patriots who during the recent conflict, went to the aid in the khaki of Canada the hills of Scotland and the horizon blue of France. The nurses who cared for the wounded and welfare workers who lent aid, and comfort to weary and hungry fighters also donned their uniforms and trod along behind the countless bands which played martial music all the day.

Everywhere in the city flags flew at half-mast. From each of the great forts guarding the harbor the memorial day salute of 21 guns boomed forth at noon.

PROBE OPERATIONS OF WRECKING BAND
Montreal, May 30—Local railway officials are investigating what they suspect to be the operations of a band of railway wreckers here. Last week a Canadian National R. Y. station was deliberately dynamited at Cushing, Que. and rails were placed on the Canadian Northern R. Y. tracks at Morin Heights, Que. Last night a switch was opened at Highlands, Que., with the consequence that a train was derailed and two men killed.

DIVIDEND RAISED.
Montreal, May 30—At the annual meeting of the Dominion Textile Company today the old board of directors were re-elected, and the dividend was raised from a ten to a twelve per cent. basis.

FARMER SHOT BY CONSTABLE

Was Supposed To Be Insane—Had List Of Grievances Against Neighbors

Ottawa, May 30—A tragic shooting took place about five o'clock yesterday in the Township of Caledonia, in the County of Prescott, some 17 miles from L'Orignal, when Constable Ernest Johnson shot and killed instantly Oliver George Sproule, a farmer aged 28, who is said to have been insane.

When Johnson took aim and shot, Sproule had a loaded revolver against the breast of Deputy Sheriff S. W. Wright, who with Johnson, had gone to arrest Sproule.

Sproule was a prosperous farmer who lived with his brother on their farm three miles from Fourtortville. About a year ago it was noticed that Sproule was acting strangely. As a result, Sproule was examined and determination was reached to send him to an asylum. The story the Deputy Sheriff tells is that a sister who is now living in New York, came and objected to her brother being sent to the Asylum. She said she would take him to New York get him, but at Montreal Sproule escaped and returned to the farm.

Yesterday, Deputy Sheriff Wright received a message from Caledonia County that Sproule was shooting up the neighborhood and a request that assistance be sent to arrest him.

Deputy Sheriff Wright set out with Constable Johnson and motored to the farm. There they found that Sproule had disappeared in the neighborhood of Prescott, having hitched up a horse and buggy after attempting to shoot several of the neighbors.

Later Sproule returned to his farm. Deputy Sheriff Wright sprang on him and attempted to pin him down. The space in the stable was small and apparently only one man could get at Sproule at a time.

Sproule proved to be very powerful. Despite the sheriff's efforts, he broke away and succeeded in pulling his revolver and leveling it at the sheriff's breast. It was at this stage that Constable Johnson, who with the others, were trying to grab Sproule, who fought like a maniac, pulled his own revolver and shot Sproule through the head. He collapsed and died almost instantly.

Sproule, it was found, had a list of grievances against whom he had fancied grievances.

CARPENTER IN DIFFERENT ROLE

Challenger For World's Title Appeared As Veteran, Pilgrim And Spectator

Manhasset, N.Y., May 30—Stepping out of the role of the fighter, Georges Carpentier today appeared as war veteran, pilgrim and spectator. Rising early, the challenger spent a short period at calisthenics, then breakfasted. At 7 o'clock he officiated at a flag raising on his lawn and hoisted the Stars and Stripes and the Tri-Color to twin masts heads. Unannounced, Carpentier motored into the little town of Manhasset and placed upon the grave of the five war heroes a small bunch of flowers, tied with the tricolor of France and crested with a small United States flag. Accompanied by Francois Descaups, his manager, he then went by train to Oyster Bay and placed upon the grave of Theodore Roosevelt a blanket of red, white and blue flowers. This floral offering was tied with a huge red, white and blue ribbon.

The main supplementaries last year totalled $23,000,000 and provided for the construction of a new system of public works, both for buildings and harbors and rivers, are restricted almost entirely to repairs, reconstruction and minor betterments. No large buildings or new works are provided for.

A sum of $855,000 is included for agriculture, of which $300,000 is an additional amount required under the head of "health of animals" for extension of accredited herd work and in connection with bovine tuberculosis.

TWO STOWAWAYS WERE JAILED IN MONTREAL

Turned Over To Authorities After Being Discovered On Steamer

Montreal, May 30—Peter Larson, 20, and John Gallagher, 19, had long cherished a desire to come to Canada and forge their way to the top. The only thing that stood between them and their desire was a lack of the necessary passage money from their home in England to the Dominion. Taking a chance, the two youths stowed away aboard the steamship Royan and were soon on their way to the promised land. But fate was against them and they had not been out many days before their hiding place was discovered.

On arrival at this port, they were turned over to the authorities and appeared before Judge Leest this morning, charged with being stowaways. They pleaded guilty and were sentenced to one month in jail or until a time within the month when the steamship company will have another ship to send them back to the old country.

WILL DISCUSS WITH OVERSEAS PREMIERS

Member Asked That Coming Conference Be Called Imperial Cabinet One

London, May 30—(Can. Associated Press)—In reply to a question in the House of Commons as to whether an opportunity would be given to discuss the agenda of the coming conference with overseas Premiers, to be held here next month, Premier Lloyd George today said he would willingly arrange it if any indication were given of the particular subjects down for discussion, otherwise it would be useless.

Replying to another question by Percy Hurd, who said that setting a misunderstanding of the nature and powers of the Conference existed, asked that it be called an Imperial Cabinet Conference, the Premier said that he proposed to discuss with the other Prime Ministers how the conference should be described.

CANDLERS LOOK LIKE GENTLEMEN

Pictureque Product Of Former Days Has Disappeared All Stylishly Dressed Now

Toronto, May 30.—Over in the States these days a sharp lookout is being kept by Pullman conductors and porters for flashy gentlemen dressed in checks and wearing diamonds—gentlemen with hawk eyes and long, lean, expressionless, impassive faces decorated with long, curling, greased mustaches. Some day they will discover a person corresponding to this description, and putting him off the train, will be saddled with a suit for heavy damages brought by one, Hank Boobins, of the Boobins Dry Goods Company, Blysum, Mass. The fact is that professional gamblers are abroad on the land fleeing the war profits, and trimming the cocky and dishonest businessmen who frequent the cars de luxe, and the Pullman people are striving to stop it. But the railway officials have a misconception of what a modern gambler looks like. So says a writer in the Kansas City Star.

Pictureque Gambler Has Vanished

Romance gathered around the cabin tables of Mississippi river steamboats of long ago when flowered vests, peg-topped trousers, and silk hats were in vogue, a la "Camou Xroy," whom Torontoans saw in the play at the Royal Alexandra a few years ago. High stakes were played—sometimes $1,000 changed hands in a single game, occasionally more. Every game ended with a gun on the table, so the stories of those days assure us. But the pioneer professionals who managed to get the rolls of the plantation owners were mere pikers compared to their successors today.

The pictureque gambler of the Mississippi river boats and of the western mining camps is gone forever. His successor looks like a prosperous banker or businessman, and often exhibits the best taste in his gentlemanly wardrobe or tweeds, smart but quiet ties and general appearance. No porter would dare to bar the entrance of such an obvious "gambler," nor would the smart-alec greenhorn take him for a crook.

Time was when the smoking compartment of parlor cars was the haunt of the piker sharp country "rubber" and "blackjack" players, who shared in being to the same men who freely sold county courthouses, gold bricks and green goods. But all these games have passed with the growth of intelligence among the gamblers. The gambler has taken on the guise of respectability, goes after "big game," and has dropped the crude methods of yesterday. No longer is he encumbered with the mechanical contrivances which once stiffened his arms, the marked-advance pasteboards awkwardly brought into play through the convenience of a well paid news butcher or the gun to be displayed threateningly at the moment his victim sees the hand been "crooked."

Today a pair of well trained hands, a simple device for marking cards already in the game, and a nimble brain are all that the modern gambler asks. He doesn't need a gun, for the victim is cheated so neatly that he never realizes it. The best of gamblers travel in pairs, and often carry their "molls" or women accomplices with them. The women are used to bait the victim, and to finally extract the gambler from the game.

The modes of working the game vary. In the case of victims on long games, the gamblers' women confederates generally make friends with the wives of their intended victims. Introductions all round follow, and presently, like as not, the men of the party hike them off to the club car for a smoke. Probably a game is already in progress there. One of the two gamblers suggests a game, and presently his pal suggests that the drawing-room in the parlor car would be a nice place to play. Thither they go. First move of the gamblers is to ostentatiously buy a nice new pack from the attendant. It looks so honest. Then with a bay sharp-pointed instrument under his thumb nail or by dabbing a wet finger on the point of a red or blue pencil and rubbing on a smear. One of the two gamblers begins to mark the cards. Only the high ones are bothered with.

Victim Blames His "Bad Luck."

The deck once marked, the victims are helpless before the skill of the gamblers in dealing "firsts" and "seconds," in producing cards from the bottom of the deck and in all the other sleight-of-hand tricks of the confirmed crook. At first the victims may win good pots. Then they keep on getting some wonderful hands, but hands just one jump below the top of the gamblers, who invariably produce a flush to cap a straight or four of a kind to beat a full house. Often so skillfully is the game played that the victim has won several good pots, and when he is finally stopped of his roll goes his way cursing, not the gamblers, but his bad luck.

"DEBT OF HONOR" PAID

BY AN UNKNOWN DEBTOR. Winnipeg, May 30.—A "debt of honor" with an old Hudson's Bay post, which had long since been written off the company's books and forgotten, was recently paid by an unknown debtor, according to an article published in THE BEAVER, the Hudson's Bay company's magazine. The debt was paid in two instalments. The first was received March 15, 1920, and the second on April 14, 1921. The total amount was for $541.50.

A letter, which accompanied this year's payment, read in part: "To avoid publicity I have taken this method of reimbursement and knowing you have no record of the transaction at the same time I am relieving myself by justifying myself that my word was always good." The letter was signed "A Bearded Pledge."

As a rule the more a man has to say about women the more he really doesn't know about them.

PEPIN IS FULL OF NEW ENERGY NOW

Popular Traveling Man Says He Eats Like Wood Chopper And Everything Agrees With Him

"I used to have to force myself to eat; but since taking Tanlac I have an appetite like a wood chopper, and everything agrees with me perfectly," was the characteristic statement made by Raoul Pepin, well-known traveling salesman residing at St. Vincent de Paul, P. Q. recently.

"About a year ago I commenced having trouble with my stomach, lost my appetite and felt sick and depressed all the time. What little I ate soured in my stomach, and often caused cramping pains which would last for hours. Nights I woke up every little while, and felt as tired in the mornings as I did on going to bed."

"Nothing in the paper where a man had suffered like I was had got relief by taking Tanlac, I started in on it myself, and I'm glad to say it has fixed me up just like the other fellows said it did him, made a new man out of me. My appetite is simply enormous now, and I never have a trace of stomach trouble. I sleep well every night and always begin the day feeling refreshed and full of life and energy. I owe my good health all to Tanlac."

Young Women Are Held After Extensive Shopping Trip In United States

Chester, Pa., May 30.—That they wanted to get "all dolled up" according to their own ideas was the excuse given before Magistrate Elliott in police court recently by Peggy Bainbrick, 1226 Crosby street, this city, and Helen Williams, of Darby, who were charged with fitting themselves out in pretty clothes at the expense of Mrs. Philip Lee, with whom Miss Bainbrick boards.

According to Miss Bainbrick's admission in police court she and her friend Helen went on a shopping expedition and used Mrs. Lee's accounts. At one store the girls, neither of whom is yet 20 years old, made purchases amounting to $244.70, and at another they ran up a bill of $107.15.

GLOBE TROTTERING PIG TO BECOME PORK

Has Travelled On Schooner For Over Year--Soon To Be Killed

Portland, Me., May 30.—Piggy, the globe trotter, will become pork soon for the benefit of the crew of the five-masted schooner Mary F. Barrett.

After voyaging a year as far east as Bordeaux, France, Rio Janeiro, Brazil, at the south with a trip to Bangor and two at Baltimore for good measure, the corpulent porker will yield to the inevitable and will be carved.

He has been a good sailor and has learned to keep his sea legs under him no matter whether the going was good or bad. Whenever it's too rough to be wandering around aimlessly, Piggy goes well forward and stretches in the lee of the rail. He has learned that he is safer there than elsewhere.

BILL AIMS AT FEUDAL SYSTEM

Would Eliminate Land Tenure In United Kingdom -- Reforms Proposed

London, May 30.—It is an anomaly that in this year of our Lord 1921 a bill is being introduced into the British Parliament with the object of eliminating the feudal system of land tenure.

One usually associates feudalism with the Middle Ages, and the history books state that the Black Death, which culminated in the fourteenth century, was largely responsible for the break-up of the feudal regime. As a matter of fact, the history books are right, but Britain's laws evolve slowly, and in the eyes of the law the whole picture of medievalism still exists.

Many of the survivals which the bill, sponsored by Lord Birkenhead and generally similar to the measure pushed by Lord Haldane in 1914, when it was sidetracked by the war, is designed to terminate, mean little save to the antiquarian or the barrister. For instance, the bill would end the legal existence of lords of the manor, thane, knight, vassal, serf, villein, steward, reeve, hayward, headborough, grievor, woodward, and headle. Other anachronisms which would be terminated are the payments of fines, heriot, quit rents, free rents, chevages, chevates, courts leet and courts baron, view of frankpledge, assize of beer, and of bread. How many of these terms mean anything today?

And yet the practices which they designate remain to complicate the purchase or renting of land.

Laws for Landlord's Benefit.

"Britain's laws," the American who contemplates buying or renting will be told, "are framed for the benefit of the landlord. One has a devil of a time to get a place, but he has a worse time in getting out of it!"

However that may be, it is a fact that British law, the source of our common law, is a very involved and very technical thing. Precedent? There are decisions handed down seven hundred years ago upon which cases even now may be decided. Lord Birkenhead's bill, known as the law of property bill, would repeal, among things, the statute of user. Now, the statute of user is a comparatively new bit of legislation, for it was not put on the books until the time of Henry VIII.—a mere four hundred years or so. But it still governs certain transactions in land.

The low of property bill itself bristles with legal terminology. While a close study of it would doubt the heart of a lawyer who is interested in the evolution of Anglo-Saxon jurisprudence, the lay reader would be hopelessly lost before he had read half a dozen clauses. Its progress through the House of Lords will probably be slow, for there are more timely measures to claim the attention of the upper house.

Gist of Proposed Reforms.

Here is what a legal writer has to say about the gist of the reforms embodied in the measure: "The bill gives facilities for over-riding all interests in land, except legal estates in fee simple or for a term of years absolute, equitable interests have to be registered to escape being overridden, and all charges and incidents are to be appraised as definite terminable annuities.

I.O.D.E. ARE IN CONVENTION

Twenty-First Annual Gathering Opened in Toronto Yesterday Afternoon

Toronto, May 30—Opening with a procession of children carrying the colors of the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire to the platform in Convocation Hall this afternoon, the twenty-first annual gathering of the National Chapter of the I.O.D.E. was launched under auspices exceedingly favorable with a large attendance of delegates representing every Province in the Dominion of Canada.

Mrs. D. H. Balfour, Vice-President of the Provincial Chapter of Saskatchewan responded on behalf of the delegates. She emphasized the necessity for closer cooperation among all the Provinces strengthening the bonds of loyalty to the motherland.

Miss Jean Arnold, in her Presidential address, dealt with the needs of Canada today and the part the I.O.D.E. should play in Canadianization, in child welfare work, in favoring British films and British publications, and in assisting in the re-adjustment necessitated by the war.

"The Order," she said, "stands for British foundation, British traditions and British connection."

Miss Arnold expressed the hope that the I.O.D.E. War Memorial would be completed this year.

DEATH SENTENCE FOR CONSTABLE

Was Court-Martialled On Charge Of Killing Magistrate Last February

Dublin, May 30.—Constable Wm. Mitchell, who recently was court-martialled in a charge of having killed the late Constable Dixon in County Wicklow last February, has been sentenced to death. Dixon was shot dead near Dunlavin and his son James, was seriously wounded at the same time. The men were resisting a search for a man who demanded money from them.

Two civilians named Foley and Mayer have been sentenced to death for the murder of police Sergeant Wallace, at Knocking in May 1919. During disorders at the curfew hour Sunday, an unsuccessful attempt was made to burn Liberty Hall. The incendiaries who were discovered, decamped. The fire was extinguished before serious damage resulted.

While a military lorry was proceeding along Berkeley Road this morning three bombs were thrown, the explosion wounding two engineers. The military opened fire and a tram car was riddled with bullets, without, however, any of the passengers being injured. Later two military tenders were fired on near the Four Courts. Machine guns were brought into use, but without apparent results.

Queenstown, Ireland May 30.—John O'Connell, a prominent Queenstown resident, was shot dead last night in Harbour Road, one of the principal streets of the town.

Considerable Changes in Regulations For Bisley Competition This Year

London, May 30.—(Associated Press)—The Prince of Wales presided at the spring meeting of the National Rifle Association today. Lord Chylesmore, the president, drew attention to the considerable changes in the regulations mainly with a view to economical squadding. The programs at Bisley this year includes all the time-honored competitions; the Kings Prize with its first qualifying stage of 200, 500 and 600 yards, the second stage of 300 and 600 yards; and the third stage of 900 and 1,000 yards. The targets are slightly modified, the central being abolished and the bull's eye retained for ranges over 600 yards. Lord Chylesmore referred specially to the gratification of seeing Canadians again at Bisley.

BRAND SPOKE WITH FRANKNESS

Had Not Kept Promise To Send Troops Into Ruhr He Told Senate

Paris, May 30.—Premier Briand today frankly told the Senate during consideration of that part of the budget recoverable from Germany that he had not kept his promise to send troops into the Ruhr when he said in a wild, for he had to choose between keeping his promise literally and keeping it in effect with co-operation of the Allies.

M. Briand renewed the declaration he made in the Chamber in reviewing the history of the London Conference and the difficulties in Upper Silesia. He showed how "the struggle for life was pulling the Allies a little further apart," and asserted that the situation must be faced in a practical way, with common sense, and interests must be harmonized.

The Premier reminded the Senators that the Reparations Commission was not under his orders; he must abide by its decision, which was disappointing to France, but through M. Dubois, the French member of the Commission, the figures were greater than the other members alone would have fixed. It was not a small thing to accomplish, he said, to have the German government on the fiftieth anniversary of the Frankfurt Treaty, say to the Reichstag: "We are vanquished; we must pass it. But France did not wish to humiliate even the conquered, although it insisted that they must recognize their defeat."

France, continued the Premier, might under certain circumstances act alone with the Allies' moral support, but it was quite another thing to act against the Allies. But he added, France must retain its personality.

DISAPPEARANCE OF A PRISONER

Got Out Of Headquarter Cells At Montreal During Week-End

Montreal, Que., May 31.—Chief Pierre Belanger of the Police Department admitted last night that a prisoner by the name of William Harrison had disappeared from the headquarters cells during the week-end. Chief Belanger said that it was not known as yet if the prisoner had escaped from the cells, had been sent free by mistake, or had been sent elsewhere. Nor was it known how the prisoner had escaped, if he had really managed to escape, if the guards added the Chief.

"An investigation is being made," said Chief Belanger last night, "and in the morning I will have the full details before me."

In connection with the escape of Ernest Robert, a young man who had been arrested for theft and who escaped from the cells of the Detective Bureau on Saturday morning early, it was stated last night that Detective Brabant, who was in charge of the cells at the time of the escape, had been dismissed from the service.

Chief Le Pige said last night that he had not dismissed the detective but that he had been obliged to transmit the orders from the Administrative Commission.

Colonel Gaudet, Director of Public Safety, said that he had nothing to say in the matter. He refused to discuss the matter.

LAST WORKOUT TILL SATURDAY

Dempsey Faced Three Sparring Partners, Stepping Six Furious Rounds Yesterday

Atlantic City, N.J., May 30.—With a four day rest awaiting him, Jack Dempsey took his last workout today until Saturday, stepping six furious rounds with a trio of sparring partners. The workout was witnessed by the largest crowd that has jammed the champion's open air arena since he started training two weeks ago. There were several hundred women spectators and they gave Dempsey a round of applause after he finished.

GERMANY COMPLETES THE FIRST PAYMENT

Paris, May 30.—Germany today completed payment of the one billion gold marks due as the first payment on reparations under the peace treaty, when 20 German Treasury notes equivalent to 850,000,000 gold marks were handed to the Reparations Commission by the special courier of the German Government who brought the notes from Berlin.

The courier arrived in Paris last night and delivered the wallet containing the notes to the Reparations Commission this afternoon. Germany a few days ago made a first payment of 150,000,000 marks on the sum due.

APPEAL MADE FOR JUSTICE

And More Consideration For Canadian Author In Upper House

Ottawa, Ont., May 30.—(By Can. Press)—On the second reading of the Copyright Bill in the Senate today, Hon. Thomas Chapais appealed for more consideration and justice for the Canadian author.

In Committee on the bill Senators Belcourt, Dandurand, Beaulieu, Belque, Chapais and David all strongly protested against the clauses which made publication compulsory in Canada.

An amendment to Clause 13, which was designed to eliminate compulsory publication in Canada, was defeated by 26 to 20.

Before adjournment Sir James Loughheed announced as the result of the conference between the Senate and the Commons, respecting amendments to the Judges Act a compromise had been reached where it was agreed that judges should act as arbitrators and commissioners when nominated by the Governor in Council.

The Senate adjourned till tomorrow at 11 o'clock.

STRIKE TAKES DRAMATIC TURN

Miners And Owners Must Agree Or Accept Compulsory Arbitration

London, May 30.—(Can. Ass'n. Press)—The coal strike situation has taken a dramatic turn over the week-end. The miners and owners have been given to understand that the Government has said its last word to them, namely that they must either agree or submit their dispute to compulsory arbitration.

The proposals of the Government in short, according to a report of the proceedings at the last Government conference, include both temporary and permanent settlement of the dispute. The Government's proposal is that during a temporary period, wages will be scaled down gradually to an economic level by the aid of the Government's grant of £10,000,000 and the owners' profits will be used to assist in breaking the fall.

The permanent settlement is to be by one of three forms of arbitration, viz: a National Wage Board or tribunal of three or a single arbitrator. The terms of reference are virtually all ready and exclude the raising of the question of a pool wages the Premier plainly hinted.

The Government's proposals will now go before the District meetings of the Miners' Union for discussion and the men's votes will be considered by the Executive on Friday. The owners meet on Wednesday.

DISASTROUS DAY FOR THE STATES

American Players Fared Badly In Tennis Championship Matches In France

St. Cloud, May 30.—The defeat of Mrs. Molla Bjurstedt Mallory, United States woman's singles tennis champion and William T. Tilden, of Philadelphia, world's grass court champion by Miss Holmes and J. T. Baines of England in the mixed doubles of the world's hard court championship here today, completed a disastrous day for the United States team members. All except Mrs. Mallory, Arnold Jones and Tilden were eliminated.

Partisans of Enver Pasha former Turkish War Minister, who arrived secretly at Angora, the despatch added, which were discovered, arrested and most of them summarily executed.

BLACK WATCH REACHES OPPELN

Sootch Soldiers Warmly Welcomed By Population Of Silesian Town

Oppeln, May 30.—The first battalion of the Black Watch arrives here today and was met by hundreds of children who threw flowers at the British soldiers. They broke into the marching squads, trying to hold the soldiers' hands and shouted gleefully as the pipes screamed the music of the march.

The residents of the place lined the sidewalks smilingly, and the men doffed their hats as the kilts trooped passed. The Scotchmen were pleased at the reception and patted the children's heads and exchanged greetings with the crowd. The German police stood at rigid salute until the whole column was by, then went laughing about their duties.

The expression was repeatedly heard from the crowds: "The Poles now have something to reckon with."

The Italians appear eager to cooperate with the British in driving out the insurgents; they have heard that this was the plan. An Italian officer remarked: "It is high time they let us loose on these fellows."

The Black Watch will be quartered here until the remainder of the British force arrives. It is said they will then be ready to take the field within a week.

AUTO CRASHED INTO TRAMCAR

Four Men Injured And Driver Is Not Expected To Recover

Montreal, May 31.—(Can. Press)—Four men injured and are now in the General Hospital here, when at 12:30 this morning an automobile owned and driven by W. Meunier, 517 Beaudry Street, collided with a tram car at the corner of St. Hubert and DeFleurmont streets.

The automobile was driven at such speed that it threw the tram car off the tracks while the automobile rebounded from the shock and was wrecked.

In addition to the driver, the injured are: Joseph Desolles, 4-A Champsage Street; Paul Mongeau, 753 City Hall Ave.; Medas Gagnon, Cartier Street. According to Arthur DeGagne, 1550 Chateaubriand street, who said that he was seated on the balcony of the home at the time of the accident, both tram and automobile approached the corner at high speed, the automobile travelling at the higher rate. The motorman had no opportunity to stop his tram before the collision. The shock of the impact was such as to break every pane of glass in the tram, while the only portion of the automobile which appeared serviceable after the collision was the engine. The police of number 15 Station were informed of the collision and the Lieut. Laurin, with Sergeant Lafrance and Constables Hamelin and Beaudoin hurried to the spot, rendered first aid and summoned an ambulance from the Montreal General Hospital.

Dr. Prudhomme, a physician of the neighborhood, also gave aid. The tram was in charge of Adrien Lefebvre, 261 St. Paul Street East, as conductor and Larochelle, 1395 Logan, as motorman. The crew escaped injury.

Meunier, the driver, is not expected to recover.

TUMULTUOUS SCENES ATTENDED CONFERENCE

Athens, May 30.—Greek Government advisors from Smyrna assert that the tumultuous scenes attended a secret conference of a committee of the Turkish National Assembly at Angora on May 28th, and that blood was spilled during the disturbance. As he was leaving the conference hall, General Ismet Pasha one of the conferees was the victim of an attempt at assassination and was slightly wounded, the despatch declared.

Partisans of Enver Pasha former Turkish War Minister, who arrived secretly at Angora, the despatch added, which were discovered, arrested and most of them summarily executed.

IMPROVEMENT IN SITUATION SOON

Foreign Credits Austrians Desire Will Not Be Granted For Few Months

Vienna, May 30.—Sir William Goode, chairman of the Austrian section of the Reparations Commission which has just gone out of existence, who has made several attempts to obtain British loans for Austria, sees some signs of improvement in the internal situation of this country but holds out no hope that the foreign credits the Austrians desire will be granted them in the next few months.

"Trade is better, wages are beginning to approach the internal purchasing value of the crown and the people look healthier," Sir William said to The Associated Press. "The supply of coal is now mainly a matter of money and at the moment can be identified with the question of credits. Raw materials are more easily obtained on long credits and the import requirements for these should be financed without any serious demand upon state funds."

Sir William pointed out that the Reparations Commission can grant credits to Austria for the time being. Neither, he said, can foreign credits be obtained solely by Austria's initiative, since he has no assets to pledge except by permission of the Reparations Commission.

"Only by a combination of all these factors can any result be achieved," he continued. "When the League of Nations have concluded their investigations and made their proposals which are to be based upon private credits, it will still be for the bankers to say if they will put up their money."

These foreign credits, if granted, he said could not be made available until the claims against Austria for reparation and for relief loans had been postponed and this involved obtaining the consent of several countries who have not yet had an opportunity even to study that question. Therefore, he concluded, that no foreign credits would be available for Austria for the next few months. Hard times are ahead for Austrians, he declared.

FORMER SOLDIERS ARE LOSING THEIR FIGURES

Waist Measurement Has Developed Extensively--Chest Way Out Of Place

London, May 30.—The tailors say that the former soldier is losing his soldierly figures. His chest which in wartime, was where a soldier's chest ought to be, has now slipped down to where it ought not to be and his waist measurement has developed extensively.

The result is that the beautiful figure of the man of 1919 has become rare and fatness and flabbiness, say the tailors, have taken the place of thinness and muscle.

"It makes my regimental heart bleed to see the stumpy way in which former soldiers now carry themselves," said one who served as a sergeant tailor in the war. "Look at that old tape measure hanging on the wall. Note the finger marks about the 32 inch line. That was the average measurement of the war waist. Compare it with the finger marks on this peace measure, which shows that the present waist is from 35 to 40 inches. My customers used to be like the letter I. Today they are like an S."

PRIZE FOR ESSAY ON U. S. CONSTITUTION

London, May 30.—The American Ambassador, George Harvey, is offering a prize of £25 for an essay on the constitution of the United States. The competition is open to undergraduates of the University of London of not more than ten years standing.

POLICE OFFICIALS TRY TO SOLVE PROBLEM

Has Mysterious Disappearance Anything To Do With Jobin Murder? Montreal, May 30.—Has the mysterious disappearance of Joseph Jobin, of Casseiman, Ont., anything to do with the murder of Georges Jobin, the Montreal furrier, who was brutally murdered in his store on Amherst Street, on May 14, this is the question police officials are now trying to solve. Racine left his home in Casseiman, Ont., on Nov. 8, 1920, for the purpose of coming to see Jobin about a position. He has been traced here, but all efforts to locate him since he came to see the deceased furrier have failed.

According to information received by Racine's parents, their son arrived in Montreal from Ottawa, but what happened to him afterwards they have never ascertained although a country-wide search has been conducted. Was he also murdered and his body disposed of in some unknown way? This is the theory being followed by detectives.

REORGANIZATION OF CUBAN ARMY

Is One Of The Tasks Facing New Administration In That Country

Havana, Cuba, May 30.—Reorganization of the Cuban army is one of the tasks facing the new administration of Dr. Alfredo Zayas. The Menocal government which preceded that of Dr. Zayas took a preliminary step by abolishing the custom of promotion of officers by selection.

The presidential decree effecting this reform became operative on July 1, but no selection will be made between the present and that date. The motive for army organization is economy and was discussed at conferences between Major General Enoch Crowder, special agent in Cuba for President Harding and both President G. Menocal and Dr. Zayas then President-elect.

While the army itself numbers only about 11,000, the high salaries paid and the cost of supplies has run the total cost of this branch of the national defense to more than $6,000,000, a figure considered excessive. Some sentiment has been shown for the abolition of the army and the creation of a force of rurales but the general trend seems to be for a smaller force than at present.

Of greater efficiency, the result of the acquisition of the most modern forms of automatic rifles and machine-guns.

POLITICAL PRISONERS HAVE BEEN RELEASED

Fifteen Hundred Royalists Liberated Under Amnesty Granted In Portugal

Lisbon, Portugal, May 30.—About 1,500 royalist political prisoners have been set free under the vote of general amnesty for all such men passed by Parliament on April 9. This vote was taken at the time when all Portugal was paying tribute to the memory of the unknown soldiers whose bodies were brought here for interment in the Cathedral at Balahia.

The grant of amnesty was the result of a long and bitter struggle for there has been a persistent fight against it by the members of the Imperial Daughters of the Empire, who organized a Tag Day and raised about $1,950.00. The Club expressed its sincere appreciation of the services rendered by these ladies.

During the year 49 luncheons and three evening meetings were held, the average attendance being sixty per cent of the membership, in which there has been a net gain of twenty-five for the past twelve months, and which now totals seventy-three. A feeling of reference was made to the loss sustained during the year through the lamented death of its President Mr. Eugene Julien who passed away on August 21st last.

The report concluded with an expression of thanks, on the part of the retiring executive to members for their unflinching assistance and loyal support to any project put forward by the officers and requested the same assistance to the incoming officers.

DANUBE PASSENGERS BEING MURDERED

Budapest, May 30.—Much mystification and considerable alarm have been caused in Budapest by the fact that one or two bodies of human beings bearing unmistakable traces of violence have been washed ashore daily for weeks at a point on the Danube river, a short distance above Budapest.

Some of the victims had their feet bound together with wire, others bore many wounds and, in one case, the bodies of two girls with stones tied to their necks. None of the bodies have been identified. Detectives say that it is evident that passengers on the Danube river are falling victims to murderous hands.

"HOMING" SQUIRREL IS OBJECT OF INTEREST

New Westminster, B.C., May 30.—A "homing" squirrel of more than ordinary sagacity and cunning is the subject of a great deal of interest here. It took up its home in the rafters of the home of George H. Small some months ago with the evident intention of spending the remaining years of life there. Various attempts to lose the squirrel proved fruitless. On one occasion it was taken to Vancouver and liberated in Stanley Park, but thirty-nine days later it was back in its New Westminster home.

"There is no doubt of the identity of the animal," said Mr. Small, "as he always comes to the same window for his food on his return, and then repairs to same hole in the roof which is the entrance to his home." The squirrel has now been taken to West Vancouver, and will either have to swim the inlet or come over on the ferry if he elects to return home.

ROTARY CLUB ANNUAL MEETING

Held Last Evening—Interesting Report Of Past Year's Activities

The importance of such an organization as the Rotary Club to the City of Quebec was clearly demonstrated when the secretary's report was read at the annual meeting of the Club held last evening in the Chateau Frontenac, under the presidency of Mr. William MacMillan.

In its work of assisting the campaign which is being waged against the spread of Tuberculosis the Club has done exceedingly well. In August last the Club held a field day for the sick children at Laval Hospital, and on that occasion furnished the children with sporting equipment which is being used for the day for the young people, who will long remember the event. Just prior to the Christmas holidays the members of the Rotary Club visited sixty families afflicted with tuberculosis and helped to make their existence more bearable.

The crowning achievement of the year, however, was the Health Campaign held during the week of May 9th to 14th for the purpose of establishing two dental clinics for children and incidentally the education of the public in the prevention of tuberculosis. The Club carried out this work with a well planned campaign, with the result that a sum of between $8,000 and $9,000 was realized. Reference in this connection, was made to the great assistance rendered by the ladies of the Red Cross, the League and of the Imperial Daughters of the Empire, who organized a Tag Day and raised about $1,950.00. The Club expressed its sincere appreciation of the services rendered by these ladies.

CITY LOSES IN COURT OF APPEAL

Will Have To Pay Damages As Well As All Costs Of The Litigation

In the Court of Appeal here, yesterday, the five judges unanimously dismissed the appeal of the City in the case of the City and Conway.

The cause of this litigation dates back to October 1918. Mr. Lester J. Conway, Manager of the Canada Lumber & Box Company, was driving from Limoilou towards the Deschambault when a piece of the wooden railing along the north side approach to the Bridge, which had become detached, was lying in the roadway. One of the wheels struck the obstruction which caused the car to swerve and crash through the fence. The car was badly damaged and Mr. Conway maintaining that the City was responsible for the accident, insisted that the City defray the expenses of repairing the car. This the City refused to do alleging that it had no responsibility in the matter.

Mr. Conway responded with a damage action for $1,200 against the City and the case was heard in the Superior Court before Chief Justice Sir Francois Lemieux, who condemned the City to pay $400, and costs.

Still unconvinced of its responsibility for damages the City, appealed from the judgment of the Superior Court, but the five judges in the Court of Appeal yesterday unanimously sustained the decision of the lower court.

Besides the damages allowed the City will have to pay the costs of the litigation in both courts.

QUEBEC, MAY 31, 1921

AGAIN WE PROTEST
Not within any great hope of changing conditions but as a matter of principle, the Chronicle once more protests against the undemocratic and immoral procedure by which the Protestant School Commission in this city perpetuates its own membership.

It is now the third time that we have drawn attention to this matter and, at the outset, we were confident enough to believe that to do so was sufficient to arouse the Commissioners to the indelicacy, to say the least, of their position but there appears to be some malign atmosphere about the School Board which transforms its members into headstrong bureaucrats, holding public opinion and even public rights in the most absolute contempt.

As has been pointed out on more than one occasion, this body possesses powers unique in their irresponsibility so that the only shadow of protection left to the Protestant community is the possibility of having some voice in the appointment of Commissioners as terms expire each year. By rendering it impossible for the community to exercise any voice whatever the Board makes itself self-perpetuating and is able to set the wishes of those whom it is supposed to serve at defiance.

By hole-and-corner methods the public have been kept in ignorance of the actions of the Board for the past school year and no explanation was vouchsafed to the public of its financial position before fixing the tax-rate for the year ahead; then, at the eleventh hour, requests are sent to the City Council and Provincial Government that the retiring members be reappointed with the result that the parents and tax-payers are confronted with a fait-accompli before they received the slightest inkling of what is taking place.

There is no reason to suppose that the Protestant school affairs of the city are not efficiently and economically administered nor do we know of any dissatisfaction with the present Commissioners but the whole system of evading public opinion is as vicious as it is uncalled for. All that the Board can do with any propriety is to notify the respective appointing bodies that the terms of office of two of its members have expired and to request that new appointments be made in the regular course, the more so as the Protestants of Quebec City are without representation in the Legislature and City Council.

It is only fair to say that Alderman Collier moved the re-appointment of Mr. Stobo with hesitation, knowing what criticisms had attended this practise in the past, but the Board's request had been left until such a time that the Council had either to act at once or forfeit its power of appointment for the year. Had there been any desire on the part of the Board to face its constituents they would have been given an opportunity of expressing themselves at least before the tax rate was fixed and the appointment of Commissioners made. Why a policy of "damn the public" should be thus persisted in passes understanding.

Admittedly the local public is indifferent to its rights so long as they are not too seriously outraged but that is no justification for high-handed bureaucracy. If appeals to reason and sense of what is right fall on deaf ears nothing is left but to adopt more active measures towards redress and these will be taken if necessary. We still refuse to believe, however, that the Board, upon further reflection, will continue in its present course which is due more to carelessness than deliberate malice.

A WISE DECISION
The decision of the Canadian Government not to bring back the bodies of soldiers killed in the great war to this country for burial has received a striking endorsement on grounds of sentiment and decency, quite apart from the obvious difficulties, the tremendous expense of such an undertaking. The United States have followed a contrary plan and Owen Wister and Thomas Nelson Page who have seen it in operation at first hand have each written protesting strongly against the removal of the bodies of dead American soldiers from the soil of France.

The first named calls attention to the physical difficulties of removal, the remains being often indistinguishable and fragmentary. "Piles of these poor fragments of human beings," he continues, "lie at Hoboken unclaimed. They have been dragged from the soil their sacrifice made sacred and where, as an honored and cared-for company, they lay in peace, their graves tended, their memory historic and precious to France. How many go to the Potter's Field. Such as are claimed and taken to some family graveyard will soon be forgotten. Those who mourn them will be dead, too. Had they been left in France they would have been cherished as long as France endures."

"No mother could come to France and see where her boy lies and not be comforted and thankful he is there. But exploiting mothers' grief to put money in certain pockets goes on. "Can nothing stop this hideous mockery of the living and the dead?" Mr. Page in the same sense describes his visit to the cemeteries and battlefields and gives his strong impressions upon viewing those never-to-be-forgotten fields. His comments:

"We were told the bodies were to be exhumed. Standing there it seemed incredible. It seemed degradation to dig them up. It would be impossible could those who loved them see their last resting place. "When General Lee was asked to lend his name to a plan to remove the Confederate dead from Gettysburg he replied that he had always felt that the fittest resting place for a soldier was the field of honor on which he had nobly laid down his life. We know as we stood there that he was right."

In the words of an Ottawa Editor, "There are many Canadians who, having lost husbands, sons, brothers in the war, find it hard that the remains of their dear ones should forever lie so far away, and who at times have wished that the policy adopted by the United States had been followed by the Canadian Government. These may find some consolation in the results that are following the American plan."

"Canada has an army of heroes, lying side by side in the war cemeteries in France and Belgium—commemorate that will be kept beautiful forever, that will be honorably cared for, and that will be gardens of peace—that, amid a great silence, will ever speak aloud the glorious spirit behind the great sacrifice."

THE KITCHENER MYSTERY

There has always been a certain mystery about Lord Kitchener's fate. From 1918, the date of his death, up till the armistice, there were some who believed that he was not dead at all but in the hands of the Germans, held as a hostage to be used to their advantage when the opportunity came, and at any rate kept where he could not operate against them. All doubt, however, has now been removed by the official publication by the German Admiralty of a report giving what are claimed to be the facts connected with the sinking of the Hampshire on which the great General was a passenger. The Admiralty asserts she was not sunk by a submarine, but by a mine, laid shortly before by submarine U75 in the field in which she met her fate.

The Hampshire sailed on June 5, and although a mine sweeper had been sunk on June 2, and was reported to the British Admiralty, the Hampshire was ordered to follow a course west of the Orkneys, on the assumption that the German submarines were not operating so far north. The German report states, however, that one of their submarine commanders had laid a mine field in this well-known path of war ships six days earlier. This, if correct, places the blame for Lord Kitchener's death on the British Admiralty. It was an unfortunate fate that the Hampshire should have been directed into the only mine field laid in the northern seas by the Germans.

It may be that the German Admiralty report is fictitious, and that it has been put forth to stir up resentment against the British Admiralty, but it looks as if a serious blunder may have been made, which resulted in the loss of one of the greatest commanders of modern times.

A Verse Or Two

(By Modern Poets)
THE MORNING COMETH
Many a tree is found in the wood
And every tree for its use is good:
Some for the strength of the gnarled root,
Some for the sweetness of flower or fruit:
Some for the shelter against the storm,
And some to keep the hearth-stone warm;
And some for a boat to breast the stream:—
In the wealth of the wood since the world began,
The trees have offered their gifts to man.

But the glory of trees is more than their gifts:
'Tis a beautiful wonder of life that lifts,
From a wrinkled seed in an earth-bound clod,
A column, an arch in the temple of God,
A pillar of power, a dome of delight,
A shrine of song, and a joy of sight!
Their roots are the nurses of rivers in birth;
Their leaves are alive with the breath of the earth;
They shelter the dwellings of man, and they bend
O'er his grave with the look of a loving friend.
I have camped in the whispering forest of pines,
I have slept in the shadow of olives and vines;
In the knee of an oak, at the foot of a palm
I have found good rest and slumber's balm.
And now, when the morning glids the boughs
Of the vaulted elms at the door of my house,
I open my window and make salute;
"God bless thy branches and feed thy root!
Thou hast lived before, live after me.
Thou ancient, friendly, faithful tree."

EAST AND WEST
(London Daily Telegraph)
We have discovered that there is no natural antagonism between the "yellow" and the "white" peoples. The Anglo-Japanese Alliance is a sign that the European nations, or some of them at least, have outgrown their arrogant contempt for those of the East. We have learnt that valour, intellectual ability, scientific and mechanical aptitude, are not confined to one quarter of the globe, and may be at least as fully developed among Oriental populations, whose brains are not inferior to our own in subtlety and breadth, whose civilization is older, and whose artistic capacity is, perhaps, more delicate and finished.

THE AGE OF ABILITY

Much of the important work of the world, in every field, is done by persons beyond 65. Why should not a man or woman fill a subordinate position at an age which does not incapacitate the head of a department, or the head of a great enterprise?

MAE MARSH AND THE "MOVIES"

Famous Star Sets Down Her Views On Motion Pictures In Book

New York, May 30—We had thought it would be beneath the dignity of a moving picture star to write a book, but Mae Marsh is not of that opinion and set down some of her views as to the art of screen acting with anecdotes about some well-known performers. Miss Marsh says that the beginner needs seven qualifications, namely, natural teeth, ambition, personality, sincerity, agreeable appearance, vitality and strength, and the ability to learn. Having these seven, all is yet in vain unless there is the eighth which is the gift of taking a good picture, and everybody who has looked over a family album has been informed that this gift is by no means common. Miss Marsh, who evidently is writing for the people who draw their mental nourishment from the movies, thinks it wise to explain that by natural talent she does not mean a desire to act. On the contrary she means the art of mimicry and the joy in the art. Having this art and ambition the beginner will work hard to develop it and may in time become wealthy and famous.

Personality and Sincerity.

It is rather interesting to learn that personality is extremely important, for the camera has a way of registering unerringly. "In my eight years before a motion picture camera," she says, "I have never met a person of inferior fibre whose inferiority was not accentuated by the camera." We do not know whether Miss Marsh is intimating that people of inferior fibre do not succeed as movie stars. If so we believe she is an optimist. "Sincerity is vital, too, because a motion picture camera seems especially to delight in exposing insincerity." Here, again, we confess that we are puzzled. Can it be that the great majority of moving picture stars are so hen-witted as to sincerely enjoy and admire the trumpery characters and impossible situations that make up most of the scenarios? Could Lillian Gish be utterly lacking in a sense of humor as to mistake anything in "The Dawn East" for sincerity, and to react to this quality herself? Trowing has gone out of fashion, but on this occasion at least we throw not.

A Strenuous Business.

Good health is necessary because he radiates from the screen, and sickly and emaciated actresses are no longer the vogue. Miss Marsh hints that an iron constitution as well as enthusiasm are important and relates the following anecdote: "While we were filming 'Polly of the Circus' in Fort Lee one morning I reported at the studio at 9 o'clock. We were working at some interior scenes that were vital to the success of the story. My director at that time was Charles Moran. Vernon Steele was playing the male lead. That day we became so engrossed in playing some rather delicate scenes that before we knew it—or at least before I could realize it—it was 6 o'clock, and we weren't half done. "What do you say to continuing?" asked Mr. Moran.

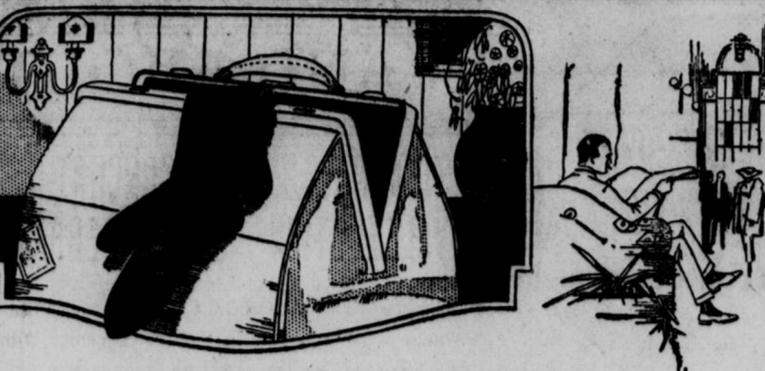

"Good, we're right in the spirit of it," I replied. We had a bite to eat and worked on until midnight. In spite of our hard and earnest efforts there were several scenes with which we were dissatisfied. "Well," said Mr. Moran ruefully, "tomorrow will be another day." As he spoke it dawned upon me how one of the scenes on which we felt we had failed could be done with probable success.

"Why tonight?" I replied. "Let's make a night of it if necessary. We simply have to get that scene." Mr. Moran grinned. That had been his wish. But he had feared breaking the camera's back. We worked until 1 o'clock that morning. Things went swimmingly. It was broad daylight when I ferried across the Hudson, but if I was very tired I was equally happy.

Matters of Make-Up. The ability to learn quickly is necessary if success is to overtake a performer in his own lifetime. The three mechanical details of greatest importance are (1) studying the story; (2) studying make-up, and (3) studying costuming. Miss Marsh says that after she has established the idea of the play in her mind she goes over the script again with an eye for business. She wants it to be understood distinctly that by business she means the tricks, mannerisms, and apparently involuntary moves that help to sustain the action. She does not mean the commercial or sordid. She says that the beginner ought to be constantly on the lookout for business, for every competent director is always open to suggestion. Beginners ought to be careful with regard to make-up. Rouge photographs black, and the recent run on hip salve has given audiences the impression that many film stars are toothless. Dorothy Gish made many experiments in make-up before she found a wig that would suit her. It is a black wig and when before the camera it is her constant companion. We doubt whether in making the revelation that a distinguished colleague wears a wig, Miss Marsh does not violate professional ethics.

Camera-Consciousness.

The writer tells us that no matter what gifts an actor may have all are to no purpose if he is camera-conscious. Some performers who have made successes on the legitimate stage and have long conquered stage fright yet seem unable to act naturally before the battery of cameras and have had to abandon a career in the movies. Still one can prosper in the movies with defects that would hamper one's success in the spoken drama. One might stammer or stutter. One might talk through his nose. One might even be dumb and still become famous. Advancement weathers a stutter. The history of the legitimate stage can show no such record of young girls and young men who have attained eminence so early as the movie kings and queens of today.

SHAMMING DEATH.
Extraordinary Power Possessed by Fakirs of India.
Remarkable stories are told about the fasting powers of the fakirs of India.
These strange men have a peculiar faculty for throwing themselves into a trance, suspending all the activities of life, and remaining for many weeks not only without food, but also without water and with a very scanty supply of air.
They begin their performance by taking a dose of bhanga, a powerful stupefying drug. Then they are lowered into a tomb, where they remain in a profound trance for from six to eight weeks. When resurrected, they are wan, haggard, weak and wasted.
A German physician gives an account of a fakir who was buried in a vault for such a long time that grain sown above it sprouted into leaf before he was released.
One fakir was buried in a deep grave for six weeks. When exhumed he had the appearance of a dead man. His heart had apparently ceased to beat, but under treatment the man recovered.
Another of these abnormal men was known to have been buried in a grave in the mountains for months, after which he recovered and lived for many years.
No explanation of this extraordinary power is forthcoming. Investigations prove that the pulse cannot be felt and there is no evidence that the heart continues to beat. The performer of the apparent miracle does not appear to breathe, and makes no movement whatever.
The power resembles that of hibernating animals. A marmot can live six months without food or water, and the story is told of a wonderful Egyptian snail which was brought from Egypt apparently dead, in 1846, and placed in the British museum. Five years later a growth was noticed on its mouth, and on being taken from the card to which it was gummed and placed in water it soon became active and ate cabbage leaves.

SEEK TO ANNULL LEVIS ELECTION Three Residents Of Place Entier Writ In Superior Court --Undue Influence Charged

A writ for an action in the Superior Court, seeking to annul the recent prohibition referendum in Levis, and having as defendants the City of Levis, Emile Demers, Mayor of the city, and Lionel Lemieux, Secretary-Treasurer of the place, has been entered by Mr. Allyn Taschereau, K.C., on behalf of three residents of Levis, Odilon Oteau, Albert Nadeau and Alfred Fournier, all three fully qualified voters of the city of Levis.

The three plaintiffs, who are restaurant keepers, claim that there were irregularities in the voting during the referendum, and also that undue influence was exercised. Just when the case will come up is not known. Four judgments were rendered in the Superior and District Courts yesterday, two of them coming from the first named court, and the other three from the District Court. Hon. Justice Gibson presided in the Superior Court, and heard the evidence in the case of Turner vs. La Cie de l'Aqueduc de la Jeune Lorette, finding the defendants guilty to the extent of twenty five dollars, and costs in an action of this kind.

Hon. Judge Malouin sat in the case of the Quebec Liquor Commission vs. L'Honorable et Choquette et al. in his case, dismissing the petition of the Quebec Liquor Commission.

The same Judge delivered his verdict on a motion in the case of L'Agence European vs. Saint Victor and Oliche. It will be remembered that Oliche is the man who seized a shipment of liquor from the plaintiffs Company, consigned to the United States, when it was placed on a train at St. George de Beauce, and sent it to Mr. Saint Victor, who is the administrator of the Scott Act in Quebec.

The Agences European sued Mr. Saint Victor for the return of the liquor, and the defendant was one day late in putting in an appearance at the Court. Consequently a motion was taken out to have a claim of default lifted, and yesterday Hon. Judge Malouin granted this motion.

LANDLADY FACING CHARGE OF THEFT But one case was heard in the Court of Sessions yesterday, that is the case of Miss Alma Gravel vs. Mrs. Denis, in which the latter is charged with theft in the shape of goods that were entrusted to her care, and which she sold without making any returns.

Miss Gravel was arrested for keeping a disorderly house, and was fined one hundred dollars and costs in the Recorder's Court, being sent to prison until she paid her fine. Being a tenant of Mrs. Denis she told the latter to sell all her furniture, and to bring the money to her so that she could pay her fine. Mrs. Denis sold all the furniture in the house, but did not take the money to Miss Gravel, hence the suit against Mrs. Denis.

MONTH OF MAY DEVOTION CLOSED Impressive Service Held In St. Patrick's Church Grande Allee Last Evening

The closing service of the month of May devotion at St. Patrick's Church, Grande Allee, was held last evening and proved very impressive. A large congregation attended while the children of the parish played a prominent part in the service. The Hibernian Cadets with their bugle band were in attendance, while the girls of the parish walked in white and wearing white veils with wreaths, as well as the boys walked in the procession about the church in which a statue of the Blessed Virgin was carried.

The procession was under the direction of Rev. Father Costello, C.S.B., Pastor of the Parish, and the Brothers of St. Patrick's School. Following the procession solemn Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament was solemnized. Rev. Father O'Hara officiated, assisted by Rev. Father Fahey and Rev. Father McCormick.

R.C.G.A. LEFT FOR PETEWAWA At Noon Yesterday To Undergo Usual Artillery Training

No. 4 Company of the R. C. G. A. left the Citadel shortly after noon yesterday for the C. P. R. Station, where they boarded the afternoon train en route for Petewawa Camp. The Company, which was under the command of Lieut.-Colonel A. E. Harris, was escorted to the Station by the R. C. G. A. Band, under Captain Charles O'Neill, which as the train left the platform played "The Girl I Left Behind Me", and "Auld Long Syne".

The other officers accompanying the Company were: Captain Shaw, Adjutant Captain C. Houghton, M.C., and Lieut. W. Kear. The Company, which was about fifty strong of all ranks, will arrive at the Camp today, and will be joined by other Companies of the Regiment, stationed in different parts of the country. During the stay in Petewawa, the Regiment will undergo the usual artillery training, including gun practice. No. 4 Company will return to Quebec some time in August next.

ACCIDENT TO ONE OF PRICE BROS. AEROPLANES Report has reached the head office of Price Brothers & Company, Limited, from Chicoutimi to the effect that while one of their aeroplanes was yesterday morning manoeuvring in the Saguenay River, just above Chicoutimi, it unfortunately hit the buoy, damaging the machine.

The occupants of the machine were not in any way hurt, but apart from the engine, it is understood that the machine will be a total loss. The machine had not left the water at the time of the accident.

FIRE RAGES AT ST. PROSPER News reaching here yesterday from St. Prosper stated that a fire raging there had destroyed the Samson general store in the village as well as three other houses.

TRAINED NURSES IN CONVENTION Fourteenth Annual Meeting Opened Yesterday Afternoon In Chateau Frontenac

The fourteenth Annual Convention of the Canadian Association of Nurse Education was opened at the Chateau Frontenac yesterday afternoon, when the initial session of the convention was started at 2 o'clock.

The President of the Association, Miss G. M. Fairley, Superintendent of the Hamilton General Hospital, was in the chair, while Rev. Canon F. G. Scott opened the meeting with prayer. The President's address, delivered by Miss Fairley, showed the progress that had been made by the organization during the course of the year, and contained some outstanding points that were of great interest, among which were the suggestions that a short course in rural nurse training, if possible, embodied in the training school curriculum might help to meet the present shortage of nurses in the sparsely settled districts of Canada.

Home Mission service would appeal to many nurses if suggested to them. It was also stated that a series of slides on the history of nursing, prepared by Dr. Maude Abbott, of McGill University, could be obtained for the sum of seventy five cents, through the Association.

The Executive Committee reported to the general meeting that Miss Selvey, the founder of the organized Canadian nursing in Canada, Miss Livingston, for many years Superintendent of Nurses in the Montreal General Hospital, and Miss Margaret Stanley, of London, Ontario, had been made Honorary Members of the Canadian National Association of Trained Nurses.

The advance in preventative medicine, with the opening up of free treatment centers for venereal diseases has opened a new field to the Training Schools, which will have to be met with adequate instruction, said the report.

The convention was entertained at lunch by Mrs. J. T. Ross, "The Highlands", while the Alumnae Association of the Jeffrey Hall Hospital entertained the nurses at tea. In the evening they were the guests of the Quebec Rotary Club, at the Chateau Frontenac, where they were extended a very hearty welcome by Mr. William MacMillan, the President of the Rotary Club, to which Miss Fairley responded in a few well chosen remarks, expressing the pleasure of the nurses that the convention was being held in Quebec this year, and expressing the hope that it would be held here again in the very near future.

During the course of the evening a number of Rotary songs were rendered by members of the Club, while a sleight-of-hand performance was staged by Mr. Professor Lachance. A monologue by Rotarian George Doak was also a feature of the program, while last, but not least, there was dancing, after which refreshments were served, bringing to a close a very enjoyable event.

A collection was taken up among the Rotarians, in connection with the Quebec Children's Fresh Air Fund, and as a result quite a tidy sum was realized.

Today the convention will be busy all day long, sessions taking place morning, afternoon and evening. They will start at 9.30 this morning, go on till noon, start again at two o'clock, and continue in session until about five, and then resume at eight o'clock in the evening. The program for today is as follows:

Morning Session, 9:30. Short papers from each Province that has registered, and the distinct educational advantages that may be procured through them. Proposed amendments to the act, and its weak points. The following will present papers: British Columbia, Miss Helen Randall; Alberta, Miss E. McPhedron; Saskatchewan, Miss M. Gray; Manitoba, Miss Carruthers; Ontario, Miss Ellis; Quebec, Miss Phillips, and New Brunswick, Miss A. White.

Survey of the course of instruction and training for nurses, as given in our Canadian universities, by Miss K. Russell, of the University of Toronto.

Noon to 2 o'clock, luncheon, tendered by the Quebec Provincial Association.

Afternoon Session, 2:00. Trained attendants in training, by Miss Gray, Superintendent of placing housekeepers in Saskatchewan. Round Table questions.

Evening Session, 8:00. Joint Session with C.N.A.T.N. Miss De Lany, President of the Quebec Provincial Association, presiding. National Anthem.

50 BAGS OF POTATOES WERE DESTROYED It is reported that a schooner owner on Saturday destroyed 50 bags of potatoes at a wharf in Lower Town. It appears that he wanted to sell the potatoes for 25 cents a bag, but as he found no buyers at that price he dumped the potatoes overboard.

BOARD OF TRADE COUNCIL MEETING

Freight Rates On Grain Discriminating Against Quebec Complained Of

The Council of the Quebec Board of Trade held a meeting yesterday, and in the absence of the President Mr. J. H. Fortier, the 1st Vice-President, Mr. A. J. Welch, presided. The members present were Messrs. E. G. Tanguay, W. J. Banks, Lt. Col. R. M. Beckett, Jules Gauvin, Hon. Frank Carroll, J. S. Royer, S. Barrow and L. P. Turgeon. Mr. T. Levesque, secretary, and Mr. O. H. Cote, Trade Commissioner, Mr. Royer submitted a report of the trip he made with General Tremblay to Ottawa in attendance at the Senate Committee's investigation into the grain movement through American instead of Canadian ports. This report provoked a discussion when Mr. Royer made it plain that the first thing to accomplish was to have local freight rates placed on the same basis as Montreal, and rest on that of the Maritime Provinces as now the case. It was admitted by the meeting that the present freight rates are favorable to the port of Montreal as well as a discrimination against the port of Quebec, and everything possible should be done to demand justice and equity for the latter port. Mr. Barrow informed the meeting of the conference he attended at which Mr. James A. Richardson of James Richardson and Son, the grain exporters, was present, and the proposition that he placed before Mr. Richardson for the export of grain from the Port of Quebec by the shipping agent which the Robert Reo Co., Ltd., were interested, and said he expected to have the shipment of grain in the near future furnished by the James Richardson and Sons, interests.

A letter was read from Mr. J. A. Bevin, Controller of Provincial Revenue, respecting licenses that well as the municipalities. The meeting decided to advise the provincial government to increase the circus licenses in order to keep out undesirable performances, and at the same time instructing the secretary to write to the Brandon, Ont. Chamber of Commerce, and send a copy of the Quebec law to show what is being done in Quebec to meet the situation the Brandon Chamber of Commerce complains of.

A letter was read from the Montreal Wholesale Dry Goods Association, enclosing a copy of a telegram sent to the Federal Finance Minister respecting the Sales tax as follows: "Members of the Montreal Wholesale Dry Goods Association place themselves on record, and are strongly of the opinion that the Sales tax should be shown as a separate item on the invoices as heretofore. It should not be optional on the part of Wholesalers to absorb such tax." The meeting decided to support a request made by the Montreal Wholesale Dry Goods Association.

A letter was read from Mr. Hugh L. Cooper and Co., New York, respecting the proposal to make the St. Lawrence navigable in order that ocean liners may carry cargoes to the Great Lakes, etc. The secretary was instructed to write Mr. Cooper, thank him for his interesting letter, and inform him that they had already discussed the question and the Board was against the proposal.

A letter was read from Mr. J. E. Beauchamp, Manager of the Acme Steel Goods, Co. of Canada, Ltd., respecting improvements of packing boxes, etc., which the meeting decided to refer to the appropriate boards of Trade in Canada respecting the matter, and ask their opinion, etc.

Mr. Kingsland, manager of Eastern lines of the C.N.R., replying to a letter from the Quebec Board of Trade respecting the placing of a Parlor Car in train No. 55, leaving Levis for River du Loup, expressing his regrets that after careful inquiry the request could not be complied with this season, for want of available equipment.

A copy of a resolution adopted by the Association of Chambers of Commerce recommending that an industrial commission be read and discussed. It was decided to ask the Government for a revision of the law in regard to stock companies that would protect the public, etc.

Children Cry for Fletcher's CASTORIA

Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for Infants and Children. Foods are specially prepared for babies. A baby's medicine is even more essential for Baby. Remedies primarily prepared for grown-ups are not interchangeable. It was the need of a remedy for the common ailments of Infants and Children that brought Castoria before the public after years of research, and no claim has been made for it that its use for over 30 years has not proven.

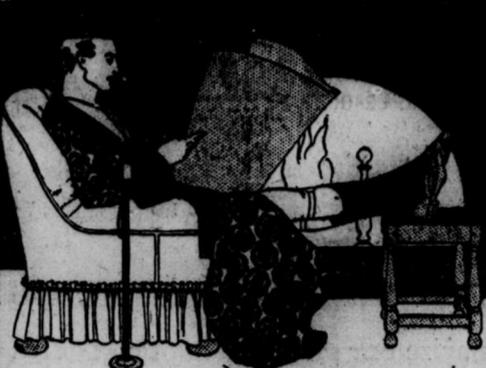

What is CASTORIA? Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrup. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. and firms in this country. It was understood that the names of Canadian firms knowing an interest in the trade enquiries should be sent to this office, but this has only been carried out in rare instances, and as a consequence it has been impossible to follow up the trade enquiries, or even to learn of those taking them up. In view of this, and the fact that I have decided to re-organise the Trade Enquiry Department, in order to make it more effective, it has been decided that in future the names of foreign firms will only be obtainable from this office, and owing to the distances of Nova Scotia and British Columbia from the office of the Halifax Board of Trade, Halifax, N.S. and the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, Vancouver, B.C. I regret that it is necessary to make this change, but would have you believe that it is considered to be in the public interest, and not from any desire to centre attention on this office; in fact personally, I am very much for decentralisation. Your business friends may rest assured that all enquiries addressed here will receive my immediate attention. The meeting decided to protest, and address letters to all important Boards of Trade in Canada respecting the matter, and ask their opinion, etc. Mr. Kingsland, manager of Eastern lines of the C.N.R., replying to a letter from the Quebec Board of Trade respecting the placing of a Parlor Car in train No. 55, leaving Levis for River du Loup, expressing his regrets that after careful inquiry the request could not be complied with this season, for want of available equipment. A copy of a resolution adopted by the Association of Chambers of Commerce recommending that an industrial commission be read and discussed. ## CATTLE EMBARGO ENQUIRY BEGUN

Standpoint of British Ministry Through Fear Of Disease, Was Stated

London, May 30.—(Can. Associated Press)—Sir Daniel Hall, chief scientific adviser to the Ministry of Agriculture was the first witness before the Royal Commission appointed by the Government to enquire into the embargo on imported cattle, which met today under the chairmanship of Lord Pinley. Sir Daniel's main point was that he would not admit that any pledge had been given by Lord Ernie, and Right Hon. Walter Long on behalf of the Government to remove the Canadian embargo at the end of the war. What the Government intended was not to remove the embargo but to reconsider it from the viewpoint of domestic policy. The standpoint of the Ministry was fear of disease though it had not a word to say against Canadian cattle in particular. In cross examination, Sir Daniel said that the price of British meat depended largely on the supplies of foreign meat and admitted that the cause of the temporary shortage of livestock last year arose from Government control.

URGE PEOPLE TO BUY COAL EARLY

Special House Committee On Canada's Fuel Resources Tabled Report

Ottawa, May 30.—The appointment of a Government officer for the purpose of keeping in close touch with the fuel situation in Canada and with sufficient power to cope with any emergency which may arise, in order that the Canadian people may suffer no inconvenience through fuel shortage is urged in the report of the special House Committee on Canada's fuel resources, tabled in the Commons this afternoon. The Committee recommends that this officer should have authority to enquire into all phases of the fuel situation and to select such experts as he may deem necessary to carry on the work entrusted to him.

Other recommendations by the committee are: Development of the water powers to the greatest possible extent in order to supply hydro-electrical energy to industrial plants. Encouragement of transportation of coal by water and efforts to reduce the cost of such water transportation. Encouragement of the use by domestic consumers of domestic coal, coke, peat and briquettes instead of imported anthracite. That all consumers be urged to purchase their coal in the early summer when transportation companies are asked to assist by granting a substantial reduction in freight rates in such periods.

That Canadian coal operators be urged to produce and store at suitable points in Quebec, Ontario and Manitoba large quantities of coal, with a view to the manufacture of coke and by-products as a substitute for imported anthracite.

That a campaign of education be carried on to teach the people of Canada to use Canadian coal wherever possible and instructing them in the best methods of doing so.

Proportional Representation
The special House Committee on proportional representation reported to Parliament this afternoon recommending "that before it is taken, a plebiscite should be held for the purpose of ascertaining the desires of the electors as to the application of proportional representation with group constituencies."

The committee was impressed with the argument advanced by advocates of proportional representation and believes that the system merits further study and investigation by the Canadian people. The Committee was not prepared to recommend the application of proportional representation in the next general election.

FLOUR FROM CAT-TAILS.

It is curious that, although the white man was quick to adopt the potatoes and maize of the Indians as valuable articles of food, he has made no use of another plant that they regarded as of considerable nutritive value: the cat-tail flag. From the root stalks, or underground stems, some of the eastern Indians made a good flour. Recent examination by the plant chemical laboratory in Washington shows that the root stems contain 81.41 per cent. carbohydrates or starch, and 7.76 per cent. protein, and that the flour can be used in the ratio of ten to twenty per cent. with wheat flour. An acre of cat-tails will produce considerably more than two tons of flour.

What Do Errors Cost You

Watch your clerks at the counter. How often do they change a figure in setting down a total? How often does a mistake slip by unnoticed?

A mistake in the customer's favor costs you actual money.

A mistake in your favor offends the customer. It means loss of time and occasions annoyance to rectify it.

Either way it means loss of the customer's confidence, and if it happens often, undermines the reputation of your business for careful dealing.

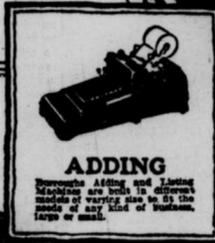

In these days there is no excuse for such errors. Adding machines are as much a part of office and store equipment as typewriters and telephones and the business man who attempts to do without them is carrying a serious handicap.

Thousands of merchants—even the smallest of them—are using Burroughs Machines to prevent mistakes, save time and give better service to customers.

Have you ever tried one yourself? Ask the Burroughs office to send one in and let the Burroughs man show you how to get the best results with it in your business.

WIT THAT WILL LIVE FOREVER

A Collection Of The Best Of Mark Twain's Humor--Distilled Wisdom

Albert Bigelow Paine, who was a constant companion of Mark Twain for years who wrote his life and recently edited his letters, has now gone through the writings of the humorist and gleaned the choicest bits. These bits, the "distilled wisdom of many volumes," he has brought out in a small book called Moments With Mark Twain. The following extract, How I Edited an Agricultural Paper, is taken from his sketches written in 1865-67.

In about half an hour an old gentleman, with a flowing beard and a fine but rather austere face, entered an apt down at my invitation. He seemed to have something on his mind. He took off his hat and set it on the floor, and got out a red silk handkerchief and a copy of our paper.

He put the paper on his lap, and while the polished his spectacles with his handkerchief, he said, "Are you the editor?"

I said I was.
"Have you ever edited an agricultural paper before?"
"No," I said, "this is my first attempt."

"Very likely. Have you had any experience in agriculture, practically?"

"No; I believe I have not."
"Some instinct told me," said the old gentleman, putting on his spectacles and looking over them at me with asperity while he folded his paper into a convenient shape. "I wish to read you what must have made me have that instinct. It was this editorial. Listen, and see if it was you who wrote it!"

"Turnips should never be pulled if injures them. It is much better to send a boy up and let him shake the tree."

"Now what do you think of that?—For I really suppose you wrote it. Think of it. Why, I think it is good. I have no doubt that every year millions and millions of bushels of turnips are spoiled in this township alone by being pulled in a half-ripe condition, when if they had sent a boy up to shake the tree—"

"Shake your grandmother! Turnips don't grow on trees!"

"Oh, they don't, don't they? Well who said they did? The language was intended to be figurative wholly figurative. Anybody that knows anything will know that I meant that the boy should shake the vine." Then this old person got up and tore his paper all into small shreds and stamped on them, and broke several things with his cane, and said I did not know as much as a cow; and then went out and banged the door after him, and, in short, acted in such a way that I fancied he was displeased about something. But not knowing what the trouble was I could not be any help to him.

TRYING EXPERIENCE FOR THREE STOWAWAYS

Hid In Cockpit Of Seaplane And Very Nearly Lost Their Lives

Washington, D.C., May 30.—Naval aviation officers are talking about the hair-raising experiments of three stowaways on a big navy seaplane, who rattled around in the rear cockpit in charge of the ship plane division.

Lieutenant-Commander Griffin, in charge of the ship plane division—the seaplanes carried aboard the battleships—was making a flight in one of the larger flying boats of the F-50 type, capable of carrying fifteen men. He took off at Hampton,

POOR FATHER!

The young man who had been calling so frequently on Helen at last came to see Helen's father. Finally the suitor made this announcement: "It's a mere formality, I know, sir, this asking for your daughter's hand, but we thought it would be pleasing to you if it were observed." Helen's father stiffened. "And may I inquire," he asked, "who suggested that asking my consent to Helen's marriage would be a mere formality?" "Yes, sir," replied the young man. "It was Helen's mother," Harper's Magazine.

Closing Letters By Local Brokers

(By L. G. Beaubien & Co.)

New York, May 30.—Following the recent advance, the recession of stock prices in progress at this writing is likely to provide the last opportunity for the purchase of securities at this level for some time to come. Despite professional operations, we do not anticipate the present decline in prices will be long sustained.

Though the country has made astounding strides toward completing readjustments necessary to bring about sound economic conditions, so much still remains to be done that it is not wise yet to expect a steady and sustained advance of prices for the future. Undoubtedly the various steps in the solution of our many difficult problems will be marked by hesitation or by temporary declines more frequent than usual at the commencement of an upward market. But in view of the great decline in prices since 1919, the strong technical position of the market, the greatly strengthened Federal Reserve, as well as the improving national sentiment and confidence, we believe intending purchasers should no longer withhold their commitments.

The most difficult and necessary problems the country must solve, before it is likely again as a whole to enjoy a normal prosperity, are a further reduction in the cost of doing the business of the country, reduction in the cost of all labor affecting production and transportation, reduction in the cost of rents and living, and last, but not least in its force as an example, a reduction in the high cost of extravagant Government before any sort of reduction in burdensome taxation is possible. We do not expect all the foregoing to be accomplished in a short space of time.

However, the national efficiency and economy necessary to restore normal conditions are perhaps not far around the corner. Many great industries are today operating at a loss which would be fatal to everyone concerned if long continued, and many are still paying extravagant wages induced by war inflation and national emergency, in some cases with the workers on half time to avert distress.

Since these conditions cannot last indefinitely and since economy and efficiency are the alternatives in this case to starvation, economic and otherwise, we believe it will be but a short while before the tendency toward the former efficiency and economy, now so necessary, will manifest itself to an extent making possible the desired economic revival.

We have expressed the opinion in previous letters that, though much yet remains to be achieved, the readjustments already made have been great and very beneficial; that the present level of securities has for the most part fully discounted the trials of the present. This we repeat again. We believe the market will shortly rise to discount the expected improvement, and as usual will start before the improvement has become evident to the casual observers.

The Montreal Stock Exchange

Montreal, May 30.—In a very dull market today on the local stock exchange, Dominion Textile took the lead and on the excellent statement made by the Company, advanced to 138 in early trading.

Despite, however, the increase of the dividend from 10 to 12 percent, the issue fell away in later trading and closed at 137, a net gain of 2 points. Converters and Penman's in the same group did not follow Textile's lead, the former seeing a point to 69 and Penman's holding at 100. The paper group were again not prominent. Abbott and Laurendeau each gained a point at 37 and 31. Rioridon and Waygamack were each unchanged and Brompton was down a small fraction, while the Spanish issues each gained two points.

The Utilities were steady to firm. Power at 84 1-4 gained a fraction, and Quebec Railway at 25 gained a point. Stronger stocks included Steamship preferred, up a point at 55 1-2, and General Electric, which netted a large fraction at 112 1-2. Weaker issues took in Steel of Canada, off a fraction. Iron was unchanged.

In the Bank stocks, Hochelaga gained a point and Royal two points. Total sales, listed 3,992; bonds $301,150; rights 4,069.

Daily Gossip On Leading Stocks

Yesterday being Decoration Day, all American Markets were closed.

The gold zone of Temiskaming has been extended about 15 miles farther south by the discovery of gold in Brice Township, which is next to Cane on the Elk Lake branch of the C. & N. O. It is remarkable that Cane Township is producing valuable silver ore.

So far 200 claims have been staked in the rush and it is understood that a valuable group has been optioned.

New York bankers were without advice as to the exact cause of the weakness on the London exchange markets Friday last. Several theories were offered. Consensus was that it is due to the accumulation of dollar credits by the Reparations Commission. A few days ago it was officially announced that the German reparations payments would be converted into American funds because they are less susceptible to violent fluctuations. One prominent banker stated that Germany will be asked to remit directly to New York rather than to Paris and London. This demand for American funds would, of course, tend to cause a rise in dollars abroad. This, in turn, would cause a decline in the foreign exchanges here.

The Government of the French Republic has just floated in the United States an external loan of $100,000,000 in the form of twenty-year 7-1/2 percent bonds, and these have been offered to investors in that country at 95 and accrued interest to yield over 5 per cent. Authorities across the line appear to be united in the view that having regard to France's financial record in the past, her relatively small external debt, and the thrifty, industrious character of her people, the bonds in question are entitled to a high rating. The strongest of an investment stand point are those which call for the retirement through purchase of a sinking fund of not less than $750,000 of the bonds monthly for five years in the open market at par, and the fact that the bonds are not callable for twenty years. There are, however, other strong points. The National City Company, in this connection says: "The recovery of France from the war devastation has been phenomenal. She has reduced her external debt $500,000,000 since March 1919, and French exchange has improved 51 per cent. since January, 1921. Exports from France during the first quarter of 1921 actually exceeded imports to France by about 100,000,000 francs—a better showing than she made before the war under normal conditions. Forty million hard-working, money-saving people, with a record of recuperative powers practically unsurpassed in all history, form the nation whose credit is pledged for the repayment of this loan."

KILLED IN FALL OF AEROPLANE

Mrs. John Brady Of Paterson Had Been Urged By Husband To Try Flight

New York, May 30.—William Coates of the United States Hotel in Paterson, N. J., formerly a lieutenant in the United States Army, and Mrs. John Brady of 15 Ryle avenue, Paterson, were killed recently when the woman's husband looking on when an airplane in which they were riding fell 900 feet to the Murchio Flying Field at Brewster, near Paterson. Physicians from the Barneet Memorial Hospital found that every bone in both their bodies had been broken.

Coates, a commercial pilot, demonstrating machines for the aviation concern of Scheffendorf & Kennedy, Paterson, N. J., had been urged by a consented to take Mrs. Brady for a ride in the sky at the request of her husband, who had been his friend for several years.

Urged Wife To Go. Brady had been up with another aviator at Pompton Lakes previously and had enjoyed the experience that he urged his wife to make an ascent. They started for Pompton Lakes, but saw Coates at work on his plane when they passed Murchio Field and stopped there.

Joseph Otter, chief mechanic for Coates, and Mr. Brady, together with about fifty other employees and spectators, were watching when Coates's machine took the air. Otter said that Coates drove the machine over Paterson and North Haledon at a height of about 2,000 feet, and then headed back toward the flying field.

The machine was descending as usual with nothing extraordinary happening so far as Otter, Brady and the others could see. Coates appeared to have perfect control, when suddenly he banked the plane and then a cross wind struck it and ripped off one wing. The machine dropped straight down almost immediately.

Fell Swiftly. It fell swiftly, and Otter could see Coates trying desperately to regain control of the machine. But he could do nothing with the smashed and broken wing and the plane fell with a crash, striking the earth with such force that the engine was driven deep into the ground. The bodies of Coates and Mrs. Brady were buried beneath the wreckage and had to be dug out.

Mrs. Brady was twenty-three years old and was married a year. Her husband was formerly employed in the New Jersey branch of the Internal Revenue Department, but is now a salesman. Coates was stationed at Mineola during his service in the army, and so far as is known has one relative, as sister, Mrs. F. M. Lord of Harrington, Del.

MUCH BUTTER PRODUCED

Winnipeg, Man., May 30.—Manitoba produced 8,000,000 pounds of creamery butter during the past year, L. A. Gibson, provincial dairy commissioner, announced. Three million pounds was exported to New Zealand, Denmark and Holland. A booklet dealing with butter making, and the manner to produce the best grades of cream for the market, has been issued by Mr. Gibson. Twenty-two thousand copies have been prepared for distribution.

PRICE MOVEMENTS STILL IRREGULAR

While Activity Continues To Follow Highly-Constrained Lines In Market

(Financial Post)

The week just closed has been practically devoid of constructive feature in so far as the stock market is concerned, and market activity continues to follow highly constrained lines. There has been a conspicuous absence of buoyancy, and in the face of unrelenting depression prices for the most part have settled to still lower levels. Practically every member of the group has suffered, and one or two of the larger industrials have developed reactions of substantial proportions.

The general industrial list is weaker, while the papers are unsettled, mainly owing to the difficulties which several of the companies are encountering in settling the wage question. Unfavorable dividend announcements from the other side have tended to further intensify the feeling of uncertainty.

The stock market has settled back and is awaiting a definite adjustment of some of the problems that have been delaying a return of activity in industrial and business circles. The chief handicap of the movement is the fact that production costs are well above normal, and the cost of commodities to the consumer is thereby enhanced out of proportion with the cost of raw or basic materials. A general revision of the wages of the employees of railway companies is expected to be introduced in a month's time, and this should have an important bearing upon business as a whole, in paving the way for a reduction of freight costs, and a general lowering of wages in other lines of industry.

Reports from the industrial centres of the Dominion lead to the conclusion that business is still highly unsettled without any definite indication in evidence that a turn is nearly approaching.

WOMEN'S BOMBERS' GANG

Master Mind Of Chicago Ring And Eight Other Members Arrested

Chicago, May 30.—The master mind of Chicago's bombing ring, the hidden hand in scores of mysterious labor feuds, that dealt in dynamite and terrorized the city, is under arrest. With him are eight other men, all said to be professional bombers, and heretofore thought to be immune from discovery.

They have given a regular blow when Andrew Kerr confessed to his part in the outrages and named 13 other men. The eight under arrest with him are in the dozen that he named.

The confession reveals that the bombing ring conducted an organized business. Members could be hired to take part in labor strikes, race troubles or political feuds. If any one had a grievance against another, they could call in a bomber just as a person would employ a detective or retain an attorney.

They have given a regular schedule of rates. Where two sticks of dynamite were used, the charge was $200. If four sticks were used, the charges were advanced to $250, and, if six sticks, the job cost $300.

Kerr admitted that he had been

The Masterpiece "Earthbound" Grows in Popularity at Empire

Are you Earthbound? "Every man for himself—no one for the survival of the fittest"—these principles were part of the creed which Jim and Nick had agreed upon; but when that creed struck at the very vitals of his happiness, Jim brushed it aside—and killed his friend. How the soul of a man wins, through agony and tears, to a wonderful redemption, is the theme of this Goldenwyn masterpiece, which started even General Pershing. It teaches a lesson for every man, woman and child and one which will never be forgotten. One has to see it to realize that it stands out as one of the greatest photo-plays ever produced. It runs again today and tomorrow.

The Concert Orchestra, under Merod Varney, render a delightful programme.

The Empire Weekly Courier and a two-reel Comedy of "The Tonserville Trolley Lines" are two other enjoyable numbers.

Mary Miles Minter a Hit in "Eyes of the Heart" at Classic

That vision is not a thing of the eyes alone but of the heart as well, is the wholesome lesson taught by "Eyes of the Heart," which presents Mary Miles Minter as a little blind girl who regains her sight, and at first recoils from the commonplace people who had brought her up and whom she had believed handsome and noble. Clara G. Kennedy adapted the play from the "Ladies Home Journal" story, "Blindness," by Dana Burnett; Paul Powell directed. The production is at the Classic till Wednesday together with Topics of the Day, the Classic News, and Pictograph and a dandy comedy.

G. B. RAY ANSWERED.

Editor, Chronicle:

Dear Sir,—Your correspondent G. B. Ray's "protest" you published in yesterday's edition has all the bloom of vagaries and hallucinations of his late and great prototype Mr. Rip Van Winkle. He has either been sleeping in some sequestered hiding place for the last quarter of a century or else he would not have published over his name such anrant nonsense about Ireland, as he published to-day. He would have examined both sides of the Irish question.

This world conspiracy commenced in Russia and by Russia for the subversion of the British Empire, is at the bottom of the Irish Revolutionary movement, according to G. B. Ray. Strange conclusion is it not when the British Premier as well as the British laboring classes have been angling for trade and commerce treaties for the last year with the Soviet Government? As pointed out humorously by Walter Lippman in "Vanity Fair," a few months ago in a dialogue between the Editor and the Critic your correspondent like that editor naturally with Bolshevik fears and alarms Lippman exposes the farce very well:—

The Editor—I always suspected that you had a sneaking preference for the Bolsheviks.

The Critic—There you are. It is surprising that Lenin is still expecting the revolution in the United States, if he reads your newspapers and believes them? In the last two years somebody respectable has announced that all of the following were Bolsheviks: President Wilson and most of his administration—the author for that is Senator Lodge, who is a scholar and a gentleman; the Republican Senators who voted against the Treaty—see the Democratic editorials during the campaign. All labor unions are soviet according to any employer who has a quarrel with them. The schools, we have been told again and again are full of Bolsheviks, and the colleges are told, are riddled with it. The churches we learn, reek with it. All the farmers of the Northwest are Bolsheviks. All the Irish are Bolsheviks. The Catholic Church is Bolshevik. The Interchurch was Bolshevik. The Blue Sunday reformers are Bolshevik. The women suffragists are Bolshevik. For two years America's motto has been: "Everybody's a Bolshevik but thee and me my friend, and thee's a little queer." No wonder Lenin is always asking why the revolution doesn't take place, when according to the press, almost everybody is for it.

The Editor—You're not serious.

The Critic—You've been nothing but serious. Have you read the diaries of Colonel Repington? You have. So have a lot of other people. You will remember that during the war he is constantly mentioning at how little the public know.

The Editor—Yes, and that Northcliffe and he had the courage and the foresight to expose the shell shortage.

The Critic—But not the secret treaty shortage, or the Irish policy shortage, or the indemnity shortage, or the Russian intervention shortage. And perhaps you have noted that these indiscreet diaries are either one fast calculated discretion even to-day, or that Colonel Repington, located at the very center of Journalism, knew less than he imagined. Have you read Philip Garry's book? Was there ever more annoying title to a book than "Now It Can Be Told"?

The Editor—Stop nagging. What of it?

But it is with his one-sided summary, his sweeping and unproven charges that I take issue with G. B. Ray whose mind has no doubt been poisoned with the propaganda emanating from Dublin Castle. The Bulletin edited by Hamer Greenwood is G. B. Ray's text-book and that fact speaks volumes.

He never read or if he read it he would not believe it, the impeachment of Ex-Premier Asquith, anent "The Devilish Atrocities of the Black and Tan" which provoked reprisals on the part of the Irish patriots.

And what of that greatest and most respected of English journalists, J. C. Scott to whom King George has written a personal letter on the 5th inst., congratulating him on his golden anniversary and for what? For his courage in defending truth and justice.

Just a week before, this exponent of truth and justice, Mr. J. C. Scott, penned these words in an editorial in the Manchester Guardian: "A few men like Hamer Greenwood have landed us in the dock without a defence before the conscience of mankind; and the nation that in the autumn of 1914 was alive with one of the most generous national passions of modern history has been dragged by these wicked blunderers down to the level of the old Turkey and the old Prussia. There is nothing for it. To dispute a few details to point out a few excesses in this detestable American report would only advertise its poisonous reasoning. Our Government has put us in the stocks as it were in the market-place of the world and when passing strangers throw at us the dead cats and bad eggs which, on the whole our rulers have earned us, it is hardly worth the trouble to plead the name of the case or to identify heavy and some of the eggs unjustly state. We may as well keep our tempers and take our pelting with any dignity that is left us and not let our own mischief-makers make bad worse by picking a quarrel with the outside world for displaying us when we let contemptible things be done in our name."

I do not care to continue this discussion with G. B. Ray but I would in all patience and forbearance abstain from casting at him dead cats and bad eggs which, on the whole our rulers have earned us, it is hardly worth the trouble to plead the name of the case or to identify heavy and some of the eggs unjustly state. We may as well keep our tempers and take our pelting with any dignity that is left us and not let our own mischief-makers make bad worse by picking a quarrel with the outside world for displaying us when we let contemptible things be done in our name."
